Robert Perry Sr. U.E.L. and sister of the late Ebenezer Washburn Esq. of Hallowell, in the 76th year of her age. Her remains were interred on the 14th with every mark of respect and real but unostentatious grief.

In the beginning of last November she was siezed with a distressing asthmatic affectation which terminated her life, and which she endured with christian patience and resignation.

Mrs Perry was born in Attleboro, Massachusetts and came with her husband and family into the Province of Ontario, among its first settlers.

She has left an aged partner with whom she had lived in affection 58 years.
7 children, a numerous train of grandchildren and gr-grandchildren; and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her loss is extensively felt. In the various relations of life, as a wife, mother, sister, neighbor and a member of civil and christian society, her exemplary conduct entitled her to the esteem of all who knew her.

Arms of Perry

Notes: - White man Ontario -

Provided arms for Perry are established, all descendants in the male line would of course be entitled to them.

As long, however, as there are living descendants of any of the brothers of your grandmother Winerva Ann (Perry) Boswell, her descendants would not be entitled to quarter the Perry arms.

If there are no living descendants of the brothers of Edith (Perry) Rogers, her Rogers descendants would be entitled to quarter the Perry arms.

As there are living descendants of the brother of your mother Abel (Boswell) Collings, you would not be entitled to quarter the Perry arms.

College of Arms, Queen Victoria Street,
London E.C. 4. 18 June 1940: from A.T. Butler
Windsor Herald.

Thanks for our letter of 7 May enclosing the Perry family tree and the sketch of the arms. A search has been made in our records and the result shows that those arms were recorded in 1564 to the family of Perry living at Water in the parish of Membury, co. Devon, then represented by William Perry whose ancestry, back for three generations, was registered at the same time.

With regard to the pedigree, the usual searches in wills, parish registers, etc., will have to be made with the object of establishing the identity on this side and the parentage of Anthony Perry of Rehoboth and as we have no clue as to his place of origin, that may be a matter of some difficulty. As a first step I propose to carry down the above mentioned pedigree from 1564 to say 1670 in the hope that Anthony Perry may be found among the descendants.

I have consulted various indexes - one result of which was to show that there were a good many families of the name of Perry in England before 1700 - an find that in Somersetshire, the county adjoining Devonshire, there was one family in which the Christian name of Anthony occurs. The cost of the search as indicated above would be about £ 35. which amount I would ask you to be good enough to forward to me.

The cost of the registration of the pedigree would be £ 34.13.0 plus £ 2.2.0 for each generation before Anthony Perry.

Unless you particularly wish for an estimate now it would be better to leave over the cost of the copy until we know exactly what has to be copied.

John Perry and Peter Perry left England on accession of James II ⁽¹⁶⁸⁸⁾ and settled in Massachusetts. John Perry had 3 sons. John, William and Peter. John Perry was a tradesman and had many ships under his control. William was a farmer and had a fine farm of 400 acres. He was an active soldier during the 7 years war. When the War of Independence broke out John and Peter joined the rebels but William remained faithful and enlisted under General Gage in May 1775. John his son enlisted as general drummer boy and both were taken prisoners at the surrender of Burgoyne. After the war was over William came over to Canada to see about getting a house and after locating, sent for his family John his son however did not come over until some years later, about 1778 having married before coming over. It was about this time that his uncle John who had taken possession of Williams farm offered to give it up to him if he would stay there, but told him not to let ~~that~~ his father come around as he would a. soon shoot him as a black snake. PERRY FAMILY TREE.

This fantastic family tree was evidently prepared for George Lee and family. It may have been prepared by Media Research, an American firm which deals in such matters. A copy was brought to Bath by Dr. James. K. Pomeroy, of Penguin, Sask. Bert Pomeroy, his nephew, had a copy made, of which this is a copy. As will be noted, dates are missing in many items, and there is no authentication, except in the recent generations. There is an error in the Pomeroy line. In one instance the husband of Jane Ann Aylsworth is shown to be William Pomeroy, in another, he is named Dan. The latter is correct. Furthermore the parentage of Robery Perry, U. E., is wrong, if the genealogy on file in the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, Mass., is true. Likewise, it is an error if the genealogy on file in the College of Arms, London, Eng., is true and acceptable.

Dr. James K. Pomeroy, Cu'Appelle, Sask.

Dear Jim:

You will be very surprised at the receipt of this letter. I shall not blame you for that, for I do not recall ever writing to you on any subject. I am impelled to write, adding the attached document, because I have recently read a family tree, of which Bert Pomeroy has a copy, which he stated he had obtained from you.

A review of the pedigree makes me believe that it was written for persons by name of Lee who are descended from the Pomeroy, the Perrys and other old families. I shall not comment on the Pomeroy line, more than to say that, aside from the Pomeroy descent from the first of that name, there is a great deal of supposition, particularly of the early Roman period.

I am particularly interested in the Perry line, since I am also descended from the same root. Such being the case, I take exception to the stated parentage of Robert Perry the Loyalist, as given in the pedigree. It is my feeling that someone has his parentage out of whole cloth. Nor is there any proof that the statement is true. I mean the statement that Robert's father was Freeman Perry, whose wife was Mercy Hazard, and whose grandfather was Oliver Hazard. The statement that Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry was a nephew of Robert Perry may well be true, seeing that Robert had two brothers, David, born 1748, and Peter, born 1753.

The Perry genealogy, a copy of which I attach for comparison, is that accepted by the great Perry family of Massachusetts and Ontario. As you will note in the upper third of page 2, a copy of the Perry line down to, and including Robert, the Loyalist, is on file in the archives of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, Mass. It is based on actual records obtained from the vital statistics of Rehoboth and Attisbury, Mass. Every date can be proved from these records.

Furthermore, as you will note at the bottom of page 2, the Perry genealogy down to and including Patience Perry and the other children of Robert, the Loyalist, are on file in the College of Arms, London, England. This was done by George Collings, a grandson-in-law of Robert's son, Ebenezer, the senator of Canada. Mr. Collings, through a professional genealogist, traced the descent, as I have shown, and, when I last heard from him, was attempting to establish the ancestry of Anthony Perry, the emigrant to America. Mr. Collings was then living in Cleveland, Ohio.

You may also have found a few errors in the tree which you showed to Bert. I refer particularly to errors in the Pomeroy line. On page four it states that William Pomeroy, son of John and Rachel Lewis, and grandson of Daniel and Patience Perry, was born in 1825, died in 1903, and married Jane Ann Aylsworth in 1846, with children--William, Alida, John, Robert, Webster and Mary Ann. On page seven it states that Jane Ann Aylsworth married Daniel Pomeroy in 1846, and had children--William, Alida, John, Robert, Webster and Mary Ann. As you no doubt also realize, it was Daniel, not William, who married Jane Ann, because The William son of John, and grandson of Daniel, was your father.

Finally, Daniel, who married Patience Perry, was born in 1740, came to Ontario in 1793, or shortly before, and married Patience the same year. At the time of marriage he was fifty-three and she was sixteen. This makes me suspect that Daniel may have been a widower when he married Patience. In fact, he may have been the Daniel Pomeroy who, in 1790 (see Census of New York) was living in Canaan Town, Columbia County. This Daniel, at that time, had a son over sixteen, a son under sixteen, as well as a daughter.

My dear Mr. [Name],

Enough of this family business, except that you had better show this to your brother, Tim., who is also interested in the family. Tell him, also, that I would not have written this if I had not been positive that I am right about the matter.

I hope that you arrived home safely and that you are well and happy. Bath is much the same as when you were here, except for the weather. I see Meta occasionally, and I have had Bert, his wife, as well as Allan, under my care. They have had an influenza of moderate intensity--headache, chills, fever and lassitude.

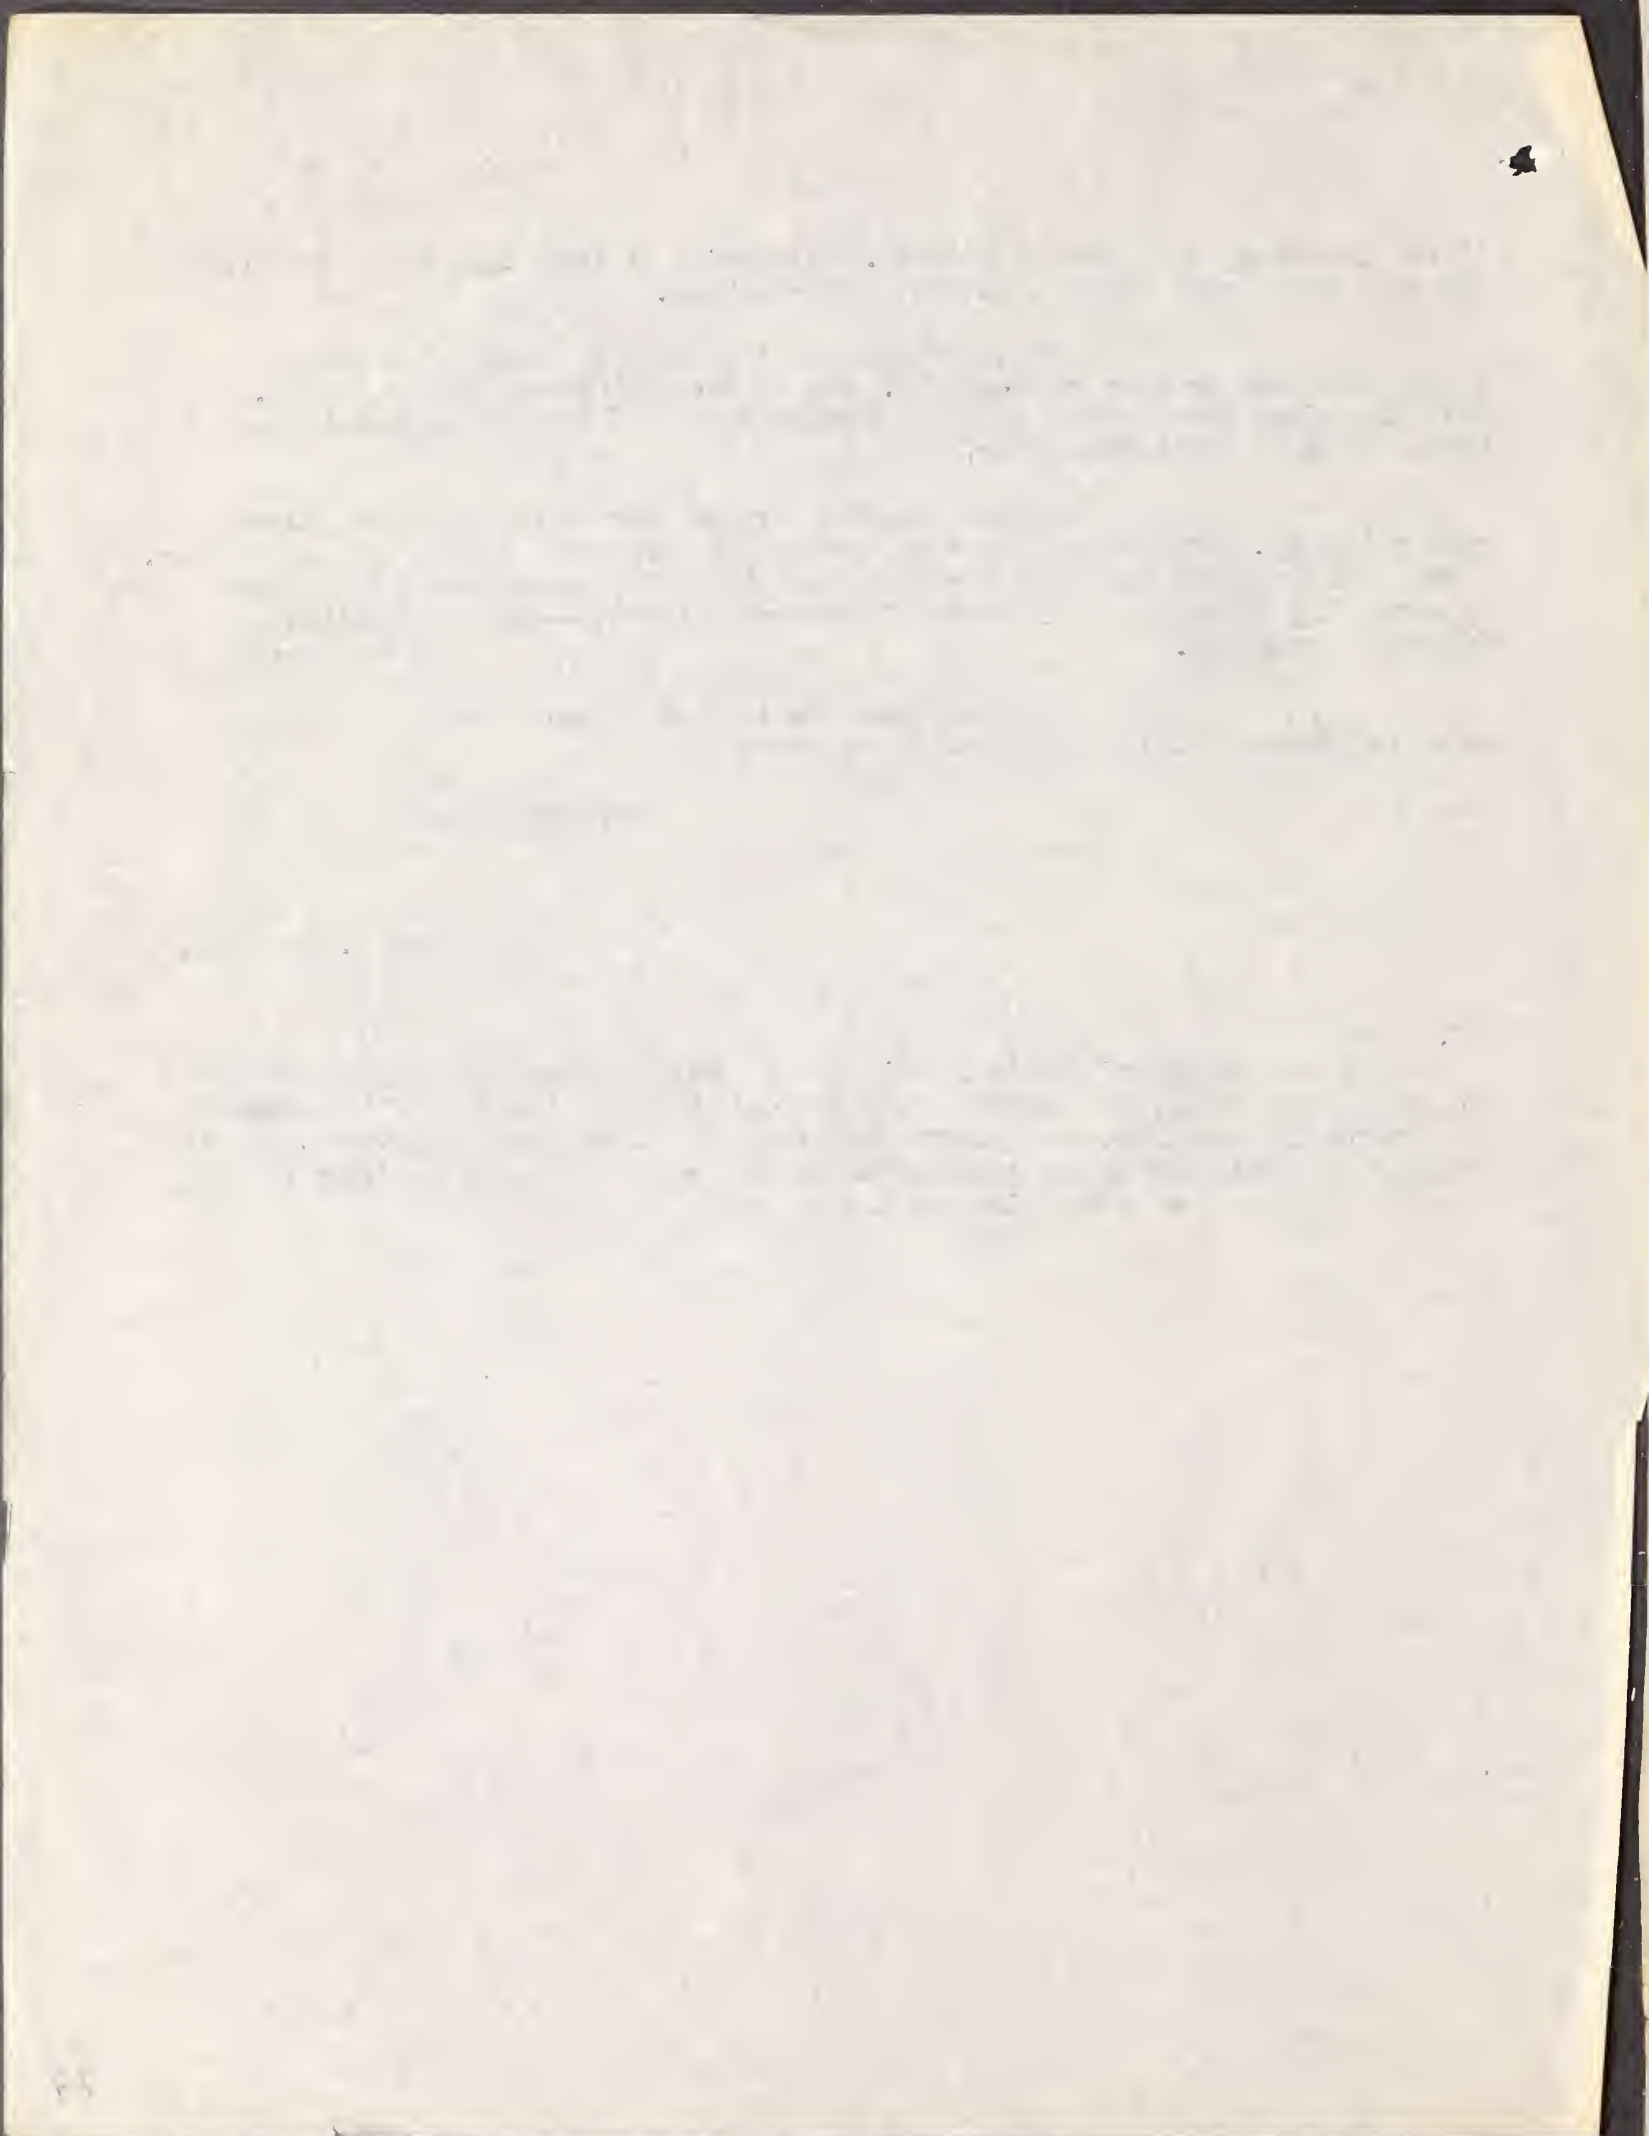

My very best wishes, and please do not hold against me my criticism of the pedigree which you brought east.

Your old friend

Herbert C. Burleigh.

PS.

A year ago the Bay of Quinte Branch of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada was formed, with headquarters in Adolphustown, Ont. One of the aims of the Branch is to collect the family histories of all our early Loyalists. So, if Tim has any criticism or any suggestions to improve the attached pedigree of the Loyalist Perrys, now is the time for him to say so.

On page 350 in your Lennox and Addington book is a short account of Bowen and Hannah Perry Aylsworth.

I'll be interested to hear how your songs were received in Vancouver. Encouragement will be an incentive for more songs.

Miss Proctor is seeing PLENTY of rain this winter. On Feb. 21, the hail stones were merrily bobbing on our front lawn like so much pop corn. In other parts of the city there was snow, and the mountains are wearing extensive white caps. Of course the more snow on the mountains, means more water for the valleys. For the first time water got in our floor furnace pipe. Fortunately, I had plenty of dry wood in, and we turned on the gas heater in the dining room, and with the heat from the oven we were comfortable. Marian had a holiday on account of Washington's birthday and we had luncheon guests-a friend and a cousin from Vancouver Island who was leaving

A letter from Patience Williams Feb. 21, said Lillian was ill with pleurisy and was in the hospital in Guelph. I sent her a card yesterday.

Obituary of Jemima Washburn Perry.

Perry--Died at Ernesttown the 12th day of January instant(1830)

Jemima Washburn Perry, wife of Robert Perry Sr, U.E.L. and sister of the late Ebenezer Washburn, Esq. of Hallowell, in the 76th year of her age. Her remains were interred on the 14th with every mark o of real but unostenacious grief and respect.

In the beginning of last November, she was siezed with a distressing asthmatic affectation which finally terminated her life, and which s she endured with christian patience and resignation to the will of Heaven.

Mrs Perry was born in the Province of Massachusetts, and came with her husband and family into the Province of Ontario, Canada.
among its first settlers.

She has left an aged partner with whom she lived in conjugal union and affection 58 years, 7 children, a numerous train of grand childr ren aand great grandchildren and a large circle of friends and acq quaintances. Her loss is extensively felt. In the various relations of life as a wife, a mother, a sister, a neighbor and a member of civil and christian society, her exemplary conduct entitled h her to the esteem of all who knew her.

~~-Robert-Perry-Sr.-died-in-1837.~~-----

Herrington's "History of Lennox and Addington" has:-

page 162 - Arrest of McCarty from home of Robert Perry page 283 - David Perry, son of Robert Perry, one of the U.E.L. at Ernesttown page 350 - Bowen, age 20, one of three sons of Job Aylesworth, U.E. pioneer, settled in Ernesttown 1788, married Hannah, 16, daughter of Robert Perry, U.E.L., settled north of Bath. They had 15 children, of whom 9 sons and 4 daughters lived to be grandparents.

However, I do find a reference to a Rev. Robert Perry on page 46, of Cornich's "Cyclopedia of Methodism in Canada" volume 1, which has the following:

Received on trial, Ottawa, 1805.
Niagara, 1806.
Smith's Creek, 1807 - ordained Deacon.
Yonge Street, 1808.
Niagara, 1809 - ordained elder.
Long Point, 1810.
Located, 1811.

I find not other reference in any list of M.E.
preachers nor can I at present find any additional material on his life.

Regarding the teacher who went back to the rebel colonies, I cannot advise you. I do know, however, from some letters of the period that a teacher did come up the St.
Lawrence to Ernesttown, and I do not know whether Lorenzo Dow, who did cross the line and come back to serve in Canada, would fit the description.

We are exceedingly handicapped in not having original material of the M.E. Church before 1828. One of the tasks of the Archives Committee will be to locate the same. My own theory is that it might be in Drew Seminary, Madison, N.J., and that the material was taken across the border during the rivalry over jurisdiction in the early church. This is only my own personal opinion.

I shall be glad to hear from you any time and be willing to call on you. The Rev. Alan J. Terrial of Colborne, Ontario, is the Bay of Quinte Conference Archivist, and I am sure would also like to collaborate.

Wishing you the compliments of the season,

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Aylsworth and his Descendants in America.

Bowen Aylsworth and Hannah Perry Aylsworth-Pages 92-95.

Bowen Aylsworth was born Feb. 27, 1778, probably in the town of Scoback, Rensselaer Co. N.Y., and was 10 years of age when his parents settled in Canada. He was married Nov. 21, 1797 to Hannah Perry born Aug. 3, 1781, a daughter of Robert and Jemima Washburn Perry, U. E.L's of Ernesttown, Lennox and Addington Co. Ontario. They settled on a farm 3 miles north of Bath where they lived together 66 years, his death occurring on the 66th anniversary of their wedding Nov. 21, 1863. He was a man of somewhat abrupt address, wasting few words in empty conversation, but of great equanimity of character, contented, prudent and unostentatious, hewing square to the line of settled convictions. His religious character was, in a measure, molded and stayed by the piety of his excellent wife. Among his acquaintances he was referred to as a model of industry, economy and perseverance. A long obituary notice appeared in the Christian Guardian of Toronto, Nov. 30, 1864. He aided in the erection of Victoria College, contributed to its endowment and was one of the supporters of the Temperance movement in Canada.

Bowen and Hannah began housekeeping May, 1, 1798, he being 20 and she 16 years of age. Her father, Robert Perry, who entertained somewhat aristocratic ideas was displeased with the marriage for a time. However a few years later he placed an outfit of furniture at her door. She declined the gift, but no doubt esteemed the generous overture as an indication of his parental approval and resumed cheerfully her place in his affections.

Robert Perry was born in Rehoboth, Mass. 1751 and was married to Jemima Washburn of Attleboro, Mass. in March, 1772 and settled in Rutland, ^{ers} Vt., in September of the same year. His two brothers David and Peter adhered to the Revolutionary cause while Robert was loyal to Britain and was among the New England Royalists. After a reverse in the British Ester Aylsworth was born 1776, and mar. Robert Perry, Jr. a Methodist preacher. He was son of Robert Perry, Sr and Jemima Washburn Perry. They were dwelling in Ernesttown in 1803 when her early death in 1803 resulted in dispersal of the family.

marriage 1790

The record of Robert Perry and Anne Rogers may be correct. She may have been his first wife in 1790, altho, as I said before Frank Perry said the Ester was the first wife. Daniel Pomeroy mar. Patience Perry, Robert's sister.

Feb. 1.

I looked thru the Dedham, Mass. records to-day for John Rogers, and saw where he was active in the early days of the town, but he did not stay long before he moved to Ipswich. I also looked thru 4 Ipswich books. There are many Johns, Samuels, some Nathans, Elizabeths and only 1 Williams, whose deaths were also recorded. That family has left a fine record, that is the family in which there are many ministers, but William is OUT, so I'll make a try at Thomas some time, probably after my return from S.B. I also looked thru records of other places-no luck. If he does not show up in the Thomas search, then the chances are the records applying to him were either, lost, burned, missing or none were kept.

How awful WAR is! Pictures are so real to me that I will not see a war movie. The pictures shown of the wholesale destruction haunt me for days. I wonder just how many of us could endure the terrors and privations of war?.

The thought just occurred to me that if Robt Perry Jr, was married in 1790 he would have been only 18 years and not until Dec. of that year. His dad was quite strict and I do not think he would have consented. I wonder if any one else beside you, David and Dr B, is anxious to find the correct solution. In the Belleville Library is a book in which is a list of Robert Jr's children, but I've forgotten if the wives' names are mentioned. I think the title is Bay of Quinte families, but am not sure.

Her father Robert Perry died in 1837 leaving about 300 descendants. Hers number about 250 as she leaves 13 children, 103 grandchildren, and more than 90 gr-grandchildren. One of her sons is a travelling minister. Some are local preachers, others are stewards and church officers. Two grandchildren are ministers. She died at the age of 85, and was buried beside her husband in Violet Cemetery.

From biographical notice of Hannah Perry Aylsworth in Wesleyan Daily Recorder, May, 28, 1869.

Note by Marie E Lowry--My grandmother Hannah Perry Davy was named after gr-gr-aunt Hannah Perry Aylsworth.

On one of gr-grandmother Polly Ham Perry's visits to Bath, she with my mother and her brother W.H.Davy Jr. drove out to spend the afternoon with Aunt Hannah Aylsworth. Mother said She (Aunt Hannah) was a very tall, plain looking woman and a very efficient housekeeper.

cause between 1777 and 1778 his family and others were driven into exile in lower Canada where Hannah, David and Daniel were born. Robert Perry and family with other Loyalists were removed by the military authorities from Lower Canada (near Three Rivers, Que.) to the Bay of Quinte country about the year 1785-86 when Hannah was 4 or 5 years old. She has often related the particulars of that and other trying periods in the settlement of this part of the province. For 80 years, she, her husband, children and relatives have been identified with the domestic social, civil, political and religious progress of this part of Canada and their records would make much of its history. She remembered the voyage up the St Lawrence in the small French boats (bateaux) and the sight of the tents pitched along the shore near the place where Bath now stands. A fatigue party had preceded the main party of the settlers. She remembered the firing of the musketry by the shore party, the firing of the boat party in reply; the hearty cheers of both when they neared the shore, and the preparations made for their reception.

Hannah and the other children were baptized by the Rev. John Langhorn who came to Bath in 1787 and was the first Church of England clergyman to reside in the county. For many years he was the only representative of the church in the territory between Kingston and the Carrying Place. In 1793 St John's Church was built in Bath.

They were glad when McCarthy, a lay preacher of Whitfield's School (Methodist) came from the U.S.. Robert Perry opened his home for services on the Sabbath. Hannah was converted at the age of 11, and joined the first class formed by Dunham. She was a member for 74 years. Her brother Robert Perry, Jr. was a travelling preacher of power in the Methodist Church, 2 other brothers, David and Daniel were local preachers, while Peter the youngest was associated with Marshall Bidwell as the representatives of Lennox and Addington 1824-1836. Another brother Ebenezer of Coburg is now a member of the Legislative Council.

Dear Mr. Freeman:

Re: Rev. Robert Perry

Your interesting letter of the 16th instant has been received at the office of the Rev. Dr. Gordon A. Sisco, General Council Archivist, for whom I now reply.

Great attention is being given at the present time to the collection and compilation of archive material and it is hoped that it will soon be possible to give more complete answers to queries such as yours.

The only person I could suggest as being familiar with original material on Ernesttown and Bath would be W.S. Herrington, Esq., K.C., Napanee, whose book "History of the County of Lennox and Addington" chapter 8, gives large space to this area.

I am glad to get what you have sent in the letter and hope you will keep in touch and finally send us a copy of what you write, for filing in the Archives. I am afraid I can add little to what you have.

In "The History of the M.E. Church in Canada" by Thomas Webster, 1869, there is much material on M.E. beginnings not obtainable elsewhere. He has reviewed most of the literature extant, but fails to mention "Case and His Contemporaries" which is very voluminous on the eighteenth century period.

Webster gives an account of the McCarty incident related by the son of the latter, John McCarty of Cobourg. Page 38 says "At the time McCarty was committed to prison, Mr. Robert Perry remarked 'You may kill McCarty, but a hundred will rise up at his burial'". Page 36-7, also tells that "Neither his wife nor his kind friend named Perry, being allowed to see him". Line 21, page 37, says that McCarty was "preaching in the house of one Robert Perry," (at the time of his arrest).

Sanderson's "First Century of Methodism in Canada" volume 1, page 27, says that Robert Perry gave bail for McCarty.

Cobourg Senator Had Five Wives!

By FRED. WILLIAMS.

Vaudreuil, Quebec, is not the only place in Canada which can boast of a much-married man. Our historic neighbor, Cobourg, qualifies for participation in that gallery. A Toronto lady, whose Summer home is at Cobourg, writes me: "You conclude your article 'Canadian Soldier Had Six Wives' with the query, 'Is there another instance in Canadian history of a man who married six times, and buried five of his wives, all dead from natural causes?'"

"My answer is that just as the New Brunswick quadruplets lost out by one to the Callander quintuplets, there lost out by that same elusive one a famous old Canadian senator, the late Hon. Ebenezer Perry, a leading citizen of Cobourg, who died about 60 years ago, who had five wives and buried four of them; all dead from natural causes; the fifth surviving wife died in the United States. The famous old senator has living in Toronto to-day a granddaughter, Miss Annie Perry, aged 97, a daughter of the senator's son, George, one time collector of customs at Cobourg, and of his wife, Madeline Macdonald, daughter of that most colorful and romantic figure of the North West Company, John Macdonald of Garth.

"Cobourg is, and always has been, anxious 'to keep up with the Joneses' and if any remarkable or spectacular event takes place anywhere under the sun, Cobourg nearly always can produce some event in its long history equal to, nearly equal to or quite surpassing the achievement of that other place. But, alas! even Cobourg with its record of five wives of one and Quebec with six sink into oblivion when compared with the triumphant record of a woman in Holland, living near Haarlem (the scene of the boy's finger in the dyke), who many years ago was the proud possessor by easy (or uneasy) stages of 25 husbands! Such a monopoly in husbands has since been forbidden by law in Holland."

The Hon. Ebenezer Perry died in 1876. He had been called to the Senate, February, 1871. His age is not stated in any of my reference books, but he arrived at Cobourg in 1815, when (as he remarked at the banquet in Peterboro in 1854 to celebrate the first railway train from Cobourg) "the place was known as Hard Scrabble, and hard scrabbling enough it was too!"

But I am afraid that Cobourg will have to take second place in this matrimonial multiplication, for I am on the track of a Toronto man who married six times and who, I am told, rests in a local cemetery with his six spouses around him in a circle!

Collective Action Needed for Peace, Says Col. Drew

Negative pacifism was not enough—Canada should take her stand in securing collective action of nations toward world peace, Col. George Drew told the Toronto branch of the League of Nations society at luncheon in Eaton's Round Room yesterday. He urged Canadians to join League of Nations' societies in order to interpret their wishes to the Government.

Only through sincerely subscribing to the collective group was there a way to peace. He believed that the knowledge that force could be used by a collective group, if necessary, would prevent international crises. He was introduced by Prof. Norman MacKenzie.

Sunday Evening Program Interferes With Church, Pastor Complains.

DR. BRUCE COMMENDED

At Toronto Centre Presbytery of the United Church yesterday Rev. W. J. Johnston voiced a protest against Major Bowes' radio program on Sunday evenings which, he said, was interfering with the church service.

"The hour from seven to eight has been regarded as the church hour," he stated. He suggested writing a letter to the sponsors of the program, saying he felt sure they would cooperate in the matter. The question was finally referred to a presbytery committee for investigation.

Urging that city officials condemn to disuse such dwellings as are lacking in sanitary conditions, presbytery endorsed a resolution commending Lieutenant-Governor Bruce upon his sympathetic interest in the housing question. Copies of the resolution will be sent to the city council and the provincial legislature. Members of

Aylsworth Family Reunion-compiled by Sir Allen Aylsworth. 1930
Reunion was held at Bath, August, 10, 1929.

Page-60--On Oct. 24, 1793, Esther, dau of Job I, was mar. to Robert Perry, Jr, in St John's Church at Bath, and 3 weeks before on Oct. 1, 1793 the same Robert Perry, Jr. and Esther Aylsworth in the same St John's Church, Bath, signed the Marriage Register as two among 5 witnesses to the marriage of Dan Pomeroy and Patience Perry "in this church" on that day.

These two marriage ceremonies, in each of which Robert Perry and Esther Aylsworth took part, were among the very first to be celebrated in the old Church building, St John's Church, Ernest Town, erected in 1793 and destroyed by fire in April, 1925.

Happily the ancient records of the Church have been preserved and are now in the keeping of the authorities of St George's Cathedral in Kingston

On Jan, 19, 1795, Elizabeth, Dau. of Job and Sarah Aylsworth was mar. to Norris Brisco, in the same St John's Church, and on Nov. 21, 1797 the son Bowen not yet 20 years of age (19 yrs and 9 mos.) was mar. in St John's to Hannah Perry, aged 16, dau. of Robert Perry, Sr. and sister of Robert Perry, Jr. and in the spring of 1798 Bowen and Hannah started housekeeping on Lot. 10, 3rd Con. of Ernesttown.

This farm has ever since been owned by descendants of Bowen and Hannah and is now the home of Mr David Aylsworth, a gr-son of one of the gr-sons of Bowen and Hannah, and Deputy Reeve of Ernesttown." end of quote

Note by M.E.Lowry- Hannah Perry Aylsworth was my gr-gr-aunt. When my mother was in her teens she went with her grandmother Mary(Polly) Ham Perry, wife of Peter Perry, youngest brother of Hannah, on a visit to Aunt Hannah, and when I was in Bath in 1938 Mrs David Aylsworth gave me a kodak picture of the house in which they are living and which was the home of Hannah and Bowen and their 15 children and 1 or 2 of Robert's after the death of Robert's second wife Esther, who left 6 children.

There ought to be a record of Anne's death in 1792 or 1793 among the Langhorn records in the Synod House in Kingston.

Robert Perry, Jr. was just 18 years of age when he married Anne Rogers who was born in-----, and mar. Esther Aylsworth 2 months before his 21st birthday. The only explanation of the land grant to Robert Perry, Jr. and Anne Rogers is that it was acquired after Anne's death, had she lived she probably would have been 21 in 1796 or 1797, therefore she was about 15 years at the time of her marriage to Robert.

Several years ago I sent you data on the mar. of Robert Perry, Jr. and Esther Aylsworth, with the dates and names of their children and who they married. Esther died in 1803 after having 6 children in 10 yrs.

After Robert distributed the children among relatives, he looked around for another wife, and found one who was willing to present him with 12 more children. For Goodness Sake do not confuse Robert Jr with Robert Sr.

I have records from "way back"

Robt. Perry was b. Dec. 1772
Esther Aylsworth was b. July, 1776, she was 17 at time of her marriage to Robert, and Robert lacked 2 months of being 21.

Dear Dr. Beukleigh:

Can you tell me, if there is a history of the Robert Perry family?

Also is there any way of obtaining a copy of "Pioneer Families

Yours Very Truly.

Deaths and Funerals

MARGARET BLANCHE WILSON

A funeral service for Margaret B. Wilson, 86, who died at her home, RR 4, Odessa, was held at Knox United Church, Reidville. The Rev. R. Speer of Odessa officiated.

Born at Moscow, Mrs. Wilson was the daughter of the late William L. Perry and his wife, the former Hannah Jane Mac-Faul, and was the last surviving member of that family.

Her husband, Thomas M. Wilson, predeceased her in 1943 as did her only child, Meredith, who died in 1959.

During her lifetime, Mrs. Wilson was an active member of Reidville United Church and was keenly interested in the Sunday School and Women's Missionary Society.

Flower-bearers at the funeral were Douglas Clarence and Ray Brown.

Pall-bearers were John H. Wilson, Robert McGregor, Harold Brown, Ralph Thompson, Adam Lyons and James Cowdy.

Interment took place at Reidville Cemetery. 12 Feb, 1962

Amusement Audience Day's Aim

chondria can be funny, illustrated by Moliere's play "The Imaginary Invalid", slated for production this week by the Drama Guild. Described as "a brilliant comedy", the three-act play is Moliere's last work, considered by many to be his best.

Amusement is the purpose of the play which is a universally recognized type, the hypochondriac, a series of situations produced by his character.

The play is presented in Convocation Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 15, 16 and 17. The play is another student production directed by Queen's drama department Dr. William Angus.

The cast features Kenneth MacKenzie, Frances Dunn, John Gore and Marilyn Milner.

Born At Violet In 1860, Dies In U. S.
Wed 12 Oct 1960

Mrs. Lizzie R. Kyes, a native of this area, died October 1 in Riverside, California, a week after reaching her 100th birthday.

She was born at Violet where her United Empire Loyalist parents lived on a Crown grant. At her birth there was a mill on the farm whose foundations still exist. She was the former Eliza Perry and her father, Daniel, was a cousin of the American naval hero, Commodore Oliver H. Perry. Her mother's maiden name was Comer.

Mrs. Kyes moved to Riverside from Kansas in 1879, making the transcontinental trip by train and the last lap of the journey by stagecoach. At that time she had a sister, Mrs. M. B. VanFleet, whose husband was the first Wells Fargo agent in Riverside.

Born on September 25, 1860, Mrs. Kyes was married Christmas Day, 1879, to H. P. Kyes, an orange grower, and was active in the community life of Riverside for 81 years. On her 100th birthday she received congratulations from President Eisenhower. When Grandma Moses celebrated her 100th birthday, Mrs. Kyes sent her congratulations and received a reply, while she was in hospital. Among the survivors is a daughter, Vera B. Kyes, an artist, who lived with her mother.

Hon. Mr. Goodfellow discussed farm problems and prices and offered his firm support to farmers of the district in the tasks which face them.

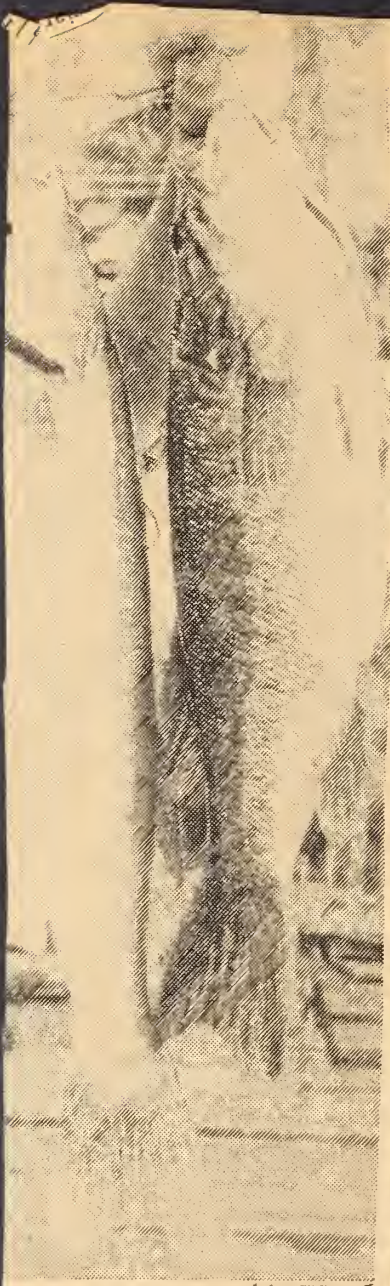

Mrs. Kyes was a charter member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and belonged to Grace Methodist Church. For 10 years every Christmas she used to collect and repair dolls and send them to children in the mountains of Kentucky. One year she sent 500. For many of these youngsters they were the only dolls they ever saw. She began this hobby in 1941 and in later years sent crocheted baby jackets and booties to Kentucky.

Sixty years ago Mrs. Kyes and her daughter visited Mrs. Kyes' sister, Mrs. Ryerson Gardiner, the former Mercy Perry, at Violet.

Napanee Lady Marks
Her 80th Birthday
Penny 1939

NAPANEE, Jan. 16 — Mrs. James B. Miller, Bridge Street, quietly observed her 80th birthday anniversary on Saturday and in addition to congratulatory messages, both by phone and through the mail, had numerous callers during the day, and she also received flowers and a lovely birthday cake.

Mrs. Miller was born in North Fredericksburg where she spent the greater part of her life. In 1923 she came to Napanee to reside. For many years she took a very active interest in the Morven brick church and on coming to Napanee joined Trinity United Church.

Since coming to Napanee she has taken a keen interest in the Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies Aid Society, although she has not been able to attend church regularly for some time. She is the last surviving member of a family of seven, and her three brothers were druggists. A sister Mrs. Myro Scryver passed away a short time ago, which came as a sad bereavement to her.

Hay Bay Tragedy Is Recalled

Old Paper Indicates Cause

Picton Gazette Wed. Aug 22 1963

A newspaper has been discovered at the old Hay Bay Church which tells the story of the fatal drownings which took place near there in 1819 and indicates that the tragedy was probably caused through carelessness.

Rev. H. B. Herrington, of Westbrook, who has been in charge of the church during July and living in the church cottage, has discovered a page from a Napanee newspaper dated December 29, 1882, in which an explanation of the multiple fatality appears. It is in the form of a letter sent to the paper as a result of the report a few weeks earlier of the death of the last survivor of the ill-fated journey, which resulted in 10 deaths.

The letter indicates that the boat carrying the group was overloaded and in poor condition. The party of 18 set out from the north shore of Hay Bay to cross the bay for services. The church is the oldest Methodist Church in Upper Canada and is now maintained as an historic site. Each summer retired ministers occupy the cottage and show visitors the church. Each year a memorial service is held. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Herrington were at the church for July.

He is a former pastor of Newburgh United Church, and is known throughout North America for his hobby of mollusk collecting and cataloguing. Mollusks are snails and clams and others of that species and Rev. Mr. Herrington has been praised for his work in this regard in reducing the vast number of confused species and for his publications in specialized fields. He has been asked to collect samples for museums all over the world and at present is doing some work for the National Museum of Canada.

Hay Bay Church was built in 1792. When it ceased to be used for regular services it became a granary for 50 years and grain was shipped from the site. It was re-opened in 1912 as an historic site and its affairs are administered by a trustee board. Recently a history of the church was written by Dr. Arthur G. Reynolds, archivist and historian of the United Church of Canada and at one time minister on the Adolphustown Pastoral Charge, from 1922 to 1925. In the two weeks following printing, the book sold 200 copies at 35 cents each, Rev. Mr. Herrington reports.

The church is located on the south shore of Hay Bay, 20 miles by road from Napanee.

The article which Rev. Mr. Herrington has come across, in the Napanee Express of 1882, is as follows:

Mr. George S. Johnson, of Belleville, gives to the public an account of the terrible calamity which occurred in 1819, known as the "Hay Bay Disaster". The matter is brought prominently before the people by the death of the last survivor, Mr. Conrad Cole, of North Fredericksburgh, reported in the Express a few weeks ago. In the long ago when our grandfathers lived the settlements were sparse, neighbors few, and for miles around the settlements were intimately known, and most of them had either family or business relations. Anything like a disaster was an earthquake in the whole community, especially when the victims belonged to the best families.

The circumstances of the dreadful catastrophe are as follows, says Mr. Johnson:

It had been announced far and wide that the great Israel Puffer, Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, Midland District, and probably one of the greatest Biblical scholars of his day, was to hold Quarterly services on the 28th and 29th of August 1819, in the oldest Methodist Church situated on the south shore of Hay Bay.

As it was customary in those days Methodists closed their business on Saturday at noon when Quarterly services were held, and with boats, wagons, on horseback, or afoot, made their way to the place of meeting. They would stop with friends or acquaintances over night and until the services were over. On the Sabbath morning referred to 18 persons were gathered on the north side of Hay Bay, all anxious to reach the church before nine o'clock, for Love Feast. Among the number were the late Conrad Cole (then quite a lad), his father, his mother, his sister Mary and my father. Some said the two last were affianced, but of this my father never said anything definite. A boat was procured and the whole company embarked. Some demurred to the conveyance, but they finally agreed to proceed. A young man was given a tin dish to bail with, as the boat leaked badly. The company, as was customary in those days, engaged in singing the old Methodist songs. It was thought that the young man with the bailing dish became so interested in the singing that before the boat was half way over he dropped the dish overboard and it went to the bottom.

The water came in so fast that some of the men began bailing with their caps. This created a confusion. The women began to sway from side to side as the water rushed in. My father was a heavy man and an expert swimmer, so he proposed to lighten the boat. He took off his coat and boots, sprang overboard and started for the shore. Before he had proceeded far he heard a fearful shriek, and looking back he saw heads and hands pointing out of the water. He caught Miss Cole and took her to the boat, which had turned bottom up, and placed her upon it. He then swam to the other side, caught another young lady and was taking her to lock hands with Miss Cole across the boat when two or three persons caught him with a death grip and drew him to the bottom, the water being some 20 feet deep. By a great effort he released himself from their grasp and came to the surface. Miss Cole had then disappeared, and was probably dragged down by the drowning ones. A few were trying to reach the shore. As my father came to the surface young Cole cried out, "Joseph, help me or I will drown"! Though somewhat exhausted my father swam to him and helped him ashore.

Looking back he saw Mr. Cole trying to save his wife. He caught a rail, went out again and brought them to the shore, thus saving three out of the four Coles in the boat. There were eight saved and ten lost. What a change a few minutes can make in our feelings and destinies! No happier company ever started to cross one of the most beautiful pieces of water in Canada than the company that embarked in a leaky boat that beautiful Sabbath morning. In a short time afterwards ten of the number lay rigid in death on the shore, while fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, friends and neighbors rent the air with cries and lamentations, and like Rachel of old, refused to be comforted.

Instead of a quarterly service, Rev. Mr. Puffer, next day conducted one of the most solemn funerals ever witnessed in the Bay of Quinte region. His text — Job xix, 26 — was the foundation for a grand discourse.

Most of the bodies were laid near the old meeting house and some were buried elsewhere. Almost the last place I drove my late father was to visit Conrad Cole, about seven years ago. Some four or five weeks ago, happening in the neighborhood, I called on Mr. Cole. He was then working in the garden. When I spoke to him he did not at first recognize me, but when he did he grasped my hand and said, "I am glad to see you, George". He led me to his pleasant home and as we rested he exclaimed, "This is a son of the man that saved my life".

Never will I forget my last visit with "Uncle Conrad". Little did I think when taking dinner with him and his kind partner, and thinking over the past that it would be our last meeting on earth. I was shocked to hear that in so short a time he had gone. The Cole family were among the pioneers of our country, and settled near my grandfather about the beginning of the present century.

The page from the 80-year-old newspaper is to be kept permanently at the church, Rev. Mr. Herrington says.

Cheese Market Board Increases Raw Milk Price

The Ontario Cheese Producers' Marketing Board has increased the price it is paying for raw milk cheddar cheese for export by one cent a pound, to 36 cents. This action, taken on the Belleville Exchange last week, has the effect of increasing the price to domestic buyers by a similar amount, since they must meet the Marketing Board's price in bidding for cheese on the exchange. The new price for cheese should allow factories to pay $3.00 or more per hundredweight for cheese milk. It is hoped the price increase will encourage greater cheese production in Ontario.

The production of cheese in Canada for the first seven months of this year has decreased approximately 4 per cent and the Ontario Cheese Producers are having difficulty in purchasing enough cheese to fill export orders to Great Britain. On the other hand, at the end of July, Creamery butter production has shown an increase of approximately 4 per cent as compared to last year, indicating milk has been diverted from cheese to butter so far during 1962.

Batawa Man Escapes As Car Runs Into River

A 35-year-old Batawa man, Leslie Bruce Pearson of 25 Nelson Strätt, received nothing more than a ducking Friday afternoon when his car left Highway 33 and plunged into the Trent River near the Bata Shoe Factory.

Police said Mr. Pearson was proceeding north on Highway 33 when his car went out of control as he attempted to pass another north-bound vehicle. The car veered across the highway and came to rest in about 20 feet of water. Mr. Pearson was uninjured.

Ontario Provincial Police at Belleville directed traffic while the vehicle was being hauled from the water.

(6) David you say "It is claimed that he married Elizabeth Miller" etc.

You might be interested in a marriage in Bath Anglican records at Synod office.

David Perry, Elizabeth Miller, Camden, 10 July 1828

Maybe Elizabeth Miller was his second wife.

1851 Census for Camden lists children of John & Sarah Bell.

Edward, Katherine, William, Hannah, Bowen and Benjamin.

The older ones John D, James, David & Libby are not on the list, likely on their own by then.

The names used are often like those of David's children. ^{P. 664} Benjamin was not a name common to Perrys either but there was Benjamin Aylesworth. ~~but~~ I never saw it elsewhere in the "Bell Family History" or not even there. As in Fred Bell's History at top of P. 5 he gives a name Robert which I never found on census. I assume maybe Robert & Benjamin are the same person.

I am just hoping that somehow you'll be able to confirm that Sally is Sarah, daughter of David even if he never was a Rev. gentleman.

Yours truly - Cora Reid.

April 25, 1976.

Dear Mr. Burleigh -

Sorry I interrupted your supper Sunday night.

For quite a while now I have been trying to find the name of the father of Sarah Perry (1804 - 1889) who married John Bell (1796 - 1876).

This week I received the obituary of John and Sarah Bell's son Rev. John D. Bell from the United Church Archives. In it was this "66 on the maternal side he was of an old Methodist Episcopal family, his grandfather having been the late Rev. David Perry of precious memory."

From data in your book on the Shoreys Walkers and Perrys (Page 5 on the Perrys) and from "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" P. 664 this would seem possible if David's daughter Sally is really Sarah.

What I wish to ask you is this. Was David Perry ever a Methodist minister? I know his brother Robert was Rev. Robt. Perry, but I haven't run across it in anything I have read of Rev. David Perry. I have written Archives again.

There is a Family Bible in Napier Museum of Bowen A Perry born 1806 - his wife and family. I believe it is David's son Bowen. Bowen's widow married Michael Temple.

Rev. David Perry

PERRY

Rev. David Perry of this memoir, was born in Lower Canada, now the Province of Quebec, in the month of May, in the year of our Lord 1723 and departed this life January 26th, ¹⁸⁷¹ in the 88th year of his age.

His father emigrated to Frederickburg, then Upper Canada, now the Province of Ontario, when Brother Perry was quite young. His father's house was a home for the first Methodist preachers to this country from the United States. Brother Perry was converted to God under the labors of either Rev. Mr. Loey or Rev. Mr. Dunham, when in his youth. He was ordained Local Deacon by Bishop Hedding, 5th day of October, 1828, at an Annual Conference held in Ernestown. Brother Perry was among the immortal few that continued with the Church during the troubles in 1833. In 1837 he joined the traveling connection, and was ordained Elder by Bishop Reynolds, at an Annual Conference held on Yonge Street June 26th. Brother Perry did not continue very regular in the itinerant work, nevertheless he was a man of sterling worth and usefulness. He was a powerful man in revival meetings, attending camp-meetings and protracted-meetings, and probably officiated in the burial of the dead more than any other man of his day.

He was a loyal man to his king and country, a certificate shows that he received a commission from the government under the reign of his majesty King George IV, as captain in the 2nd Regiment of Addington militia, given at York, now the city of Toronto, the 25th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two.

Brother Perry was married twice. His first wife passed on to glory many years ago; his second wife died Sabbath, 29th January, just three days after his death, and their last remains were deposited together in one grave. He was the father of a large, respected and useful family.

Brother Perry was a man, in his day, of property and business ability. He once owned a large tract of land, with its valuable water privileges, where the flourishing village of Newburg now stands, and built the first mill ever erected there. He was one of a large family, and was honorably connected; a brother of the Hon. E. Perry, now a member of the Dominion Senate, as also of the late F. Perry, whose political influence has been felt in this land, as also the Revs. Daniel and Robert Perry. He was a man of powerful natural abilities, which were employed in rendering good service in the work of the Lord. He took a superannuated relation to the Conference, without claim on her funds, in 1845, and continued in that relation to the day of his death. For some years previous to his death he was peculiarly and strangely exercised, alternating between a deep mental depression and an extreme ecstasy; but in the midst of it all he always was triumphing in grace. He witnessed a good confession, and could say, in the language of the apostle, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness".

Dear Peter:

The model of the 1881 Bath School will be mailed to you with this letter. As I have had no news from Bath for a ~~to~~ ^{know} long time and do not if there is any renewed interest in the Hist. Soc. and if the model would be acceptable, I decided to send it anyway, with the hope that it might possibly stir up ~~in~~ interest. The museums and Hist. Societies that do not charge admission fees have either a wooden or tin receptacle for receiving donations. A chain and padlock fastens ~~ens~~ them to a post in the wall.

Mrs Gutzeit , in a letter more than a year ago mentioned the r renewed interest in the Napanee Soc. and asked if I would consent to loan the Davy-Rogers-Perry collection , (which is rather meager) to it for a time. Have heard nothing more .

The Hist. Soc. in Falmouth, Mass. on Cape Cod is housed in one of the old homes. I asked the lady in charge, if the members showed much interest. Her reply "There is always the faithful few" The above remark is true of ^{some} other societies, but if the faithful few "keep on a-keepin' on" eventually something happens to rouse the interest of the many.

Give the members parts on the programs is one way of keeping them interested. Also allowing each one a share in building up the society is another way, and will give them a sense of pride.

I may be talking thru my hat, or building air castles, but if we want to keep clear of communism, we must do something to instill more respect in the people for our background and for the good of the present young generation, both in Canada and the U.S.A. also in England. I do not like the attitude England is taking towards the Communists.

Wishing you good Luck

It is so pathetic, Metro's decision to construct the Lakeshore Expressway over ten years might be a parable to Alice in Wonderland. A really ludicrous piece of business of Mr. Lewis Carroll.

He make-believe, ten years does not mean ten years at all, but twelve or twenty. Metro roads projects have a tendency to fall behind schedule—Clinton Avenue extension; or the extension of the Lakeshore Expressway, or the crossing of Queen Street over the river. It was begun a year ago last November, on December, a nine-month job. Nine months after, it is still unfinished. Metro realized that other road projects were planned intelligently until new facts have been established by the time it becomes evident that the relief of acute traffic congestion cannot be achieved in years, but only in centuries.

A haphazard approach to traffic problems is explicable if population, and the number of cars to that population, were both going up. In the past, for example, the number of cars crossing the Chamber Bridge has increased from 100 daily. Optimists who predicted that the new Highway across the north end would obviate the necessity for the Expressway have been dismayed to find it has become clogged with no less pressure on the southern east.

What the situation will be ten and nine years from now, when the Expressway is completed, beggars cannot tell. The reason for building the Expressway at the rate of less than a mile

Dear Peter: You rascal-you don't deserve a letter, but I'm going to write one anyway and enclose a picture of the model of Bath School as it was in 1881, made by Amos Purdy, 225 West Loop Drive, Camarillo, California.

We stopped to see the Purdy's on our way home from Santa Barbara on May 2. It would have been embarrassing to tell them you had not answered my letter telling about the model of the school made by Amos, but from remarks on a previous occasion, they are inclined to think Bathites do not know HOW to appreciate what is done for them.

Too much confounded smugness that retards progress.

Mr Allen of the Bath schools is a brother of Mrs Lewis Purdy-Lew's second wife-and a very nice woman.

Now that you have seen a picture of the model, which I hope meets your approval, may I suggest that you lose no time to send a letter of acknowledgment and appreciation to Amos while he is living. His age is 88 and Lew will be 91 in September.

Then while you are in the writing humor, don't forget that you owe me several letters too, questions to be answered &c. Of course, I'd like to know if anything has been done to revive the Hist. Soc. and if the lost records have been found. Seems to me I mentioned getting some articles from a Davy-Fairfield cousin for the Soc. This cousin and her husband are now at their summer home on Vancouver Island. They plan to be in Santa Barbara right after Labor Day. Time is short, if you cannot send in your request now, it will have to wait another year. I might be able to get something from a Peter Davy descendant who lives in Macklin, Sask. Her age is 87, and I have not heard from her for a year, but she has a brother in Los Angeles, who would have phoned me if she were not living.

As I have stated previously, to insure interest in the society, give members a part in the program. That will stimulate their interest, and will create an interest for more knowledge..

In all parts of the U.S. people are taking more interest in those things and Hist. Socs are springing up in some of the outlying districts, because a few who are interested in something besides gossip, had the courage to start a ball rolling. Bury Negative Thinking, substitute Positive Thinking, and see what happens. What has been done before, can be done again. GET BUSY.

Sincerely,
Marie E. Leary

Dear Dorothy:

July

The third 90's degree heat wave began this week-a record ~~for~~ for July. The walls of houses are now thoroly heated, so that is probab-
~~July~~ ly the reason we are really feeling the heat. Again, as in former years the side front porch is our outdoor living and diningroom. We often have our evening meal in the back yard. The folding tray tables are a welcome convenience in serving, during the winter we use them for Sunday Night suppers before the open fire.

Any heat above 80 degrees is HOT for me, whether dry or moist, and I accomplish little or nothing. Ocean breezes temper the heat in this area but in the interior the degrees go UP as far as 130-the official figures are lower-but they are too high for comfort. The low humidity is one salvation. When we read about the high heat in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and other places, I remarked to Marian "If Hell is as HOT as this I hope I will not be sent there" She said "You have not planned on going there, so why worry,?"

August, 2,----- Since writing the above paragraph, the mercury rose to 95 in down town L.A. (official). We are supposed to be 3 or 4 degrees cooler to me it seemed like MORE, anyway we have had 2 days of comfortably warm weather, to keep us good natured before the heat is turned up again.

No news from Bath for many months, except a letter from Luella Lewis telling of Hub's passing. Hub and Jimmie gone, leaves me the only octogenarian of that generation, unless Amos and Lew Purdy are mentioned. I am the only survivor of the group that played Hide and Go Seek before dark on summer nights in our section of the village.

I hope the park was ready for use this year, Now IF I had been wise enough to buy back the Rogers property when it was offered to me at a reasonable price, I would be glad to offer part of that land to make the park larger, but what of the intervening land?

Seems to me Bath has been a victim of Negative Thinking for about 100 years and it is good news to know that the residents are about to awaken to the necessity of doing some Positive Thinking if Bath is to become a Center of business and culture.

Peter Davy has been accused of being the cause of Bath's setback, when he listened to John Lasher who urged him to boost the price of his land

Miss Mary

P. H. Davy

the officials of the Grand Trunk R.R. needed for an extension of the road. My grandfather urged him to give them the land. Peter had plenty of money but it was a case of Much wanting MORE. Peter listened to John Lasher, set his price too high, so the officials went to Napanee where they had better treatment. To-day we ask ourselves the question Why didn't the other men who had money, unite and buy the land from Peter Davy, then give it to the Grand Trunk? Few of the Bath settlers were civic-minded and could not see future progress. A former Bathite-not living-told me about 50 years ago-"Your grandfather did more for Bath than any other person, and got NO thanks for his efforts."

All that is past, the future is ahead, plan for the future .

Marian and I were in two antique shops in Glendale recently. In one the articles were nicely arranged, high price marks on everything. In the other, nothing was marked and everything was DUSTY. The man quoted prices at random, out of proportion to their value, for instance-- a cut glass vase, height 12 inches for $12.50. I've seen them marked $25. We have one, and a golden brown glass hat, daisy and button design 2½ inches in height like the one I bought, when I was a school girl in Chicago in 1886. His price $14.00. I said "the daisy and button glass was on the market for the first time in 1886". He gave me a look that said I was not to contradict him, then told me the date was 1874. I was too astonished to say anything but now wish I had had wit enough to ask him what he would give me for mine. Marian said he was a big bluff and quoted prices at random to show off his ignorance.

It is good news that the old Bay View House has been transformed into a modern Loyalist Inn. If prices are moderate they should have good patronage.

No letter from Ray so far this year. He had met some Toronto people who may spur his ambition. He has talked for years about going to Toronto, which idea I have encouraged, urging him to put himself in circulation if he expected to get anywhere-make progress. He was hoping his home would be sold this year. To make money, money must be spent, and I suggested that if he modernized his bathroom and kitchen he would get back more than he paid out and a quicker sale of the house. If he had a car, he would have travelled more. If he is in Brighton, he is still dreaming.

"Any poor old fish can float and drift along and dream,
But it takes a regular live one to swim against the stream."

I am wondering if Diane has presented you and Peter with more grandchildren, if so, she is probably not quite so independent as with the first one. Most every one rides a high horse in their young days until a time comes when we begin to see that our parents are really intelligent persons who can give us needed information.

I have 3 gr-grandsons now, and another will be coming the latter part of

in Los Angeles

August, that is hoped will be a girl. A gr-grand niece arrived on July 5. The parents are delighted she came on that day, as their first child a boy arrived on July 5, 1952. One birthday party each year instead of 2.

This year has been an unusually busy one for us, and the end is not yet. A 2 story apt house is being built on the corner lot next to ours which, of course we do not like. The restrictions were taken off this area about the time we moved here, in 1923. Several times I tried to interest the property owners in having them restored, but they were too complaisant, gave flimsy excuses. Several years ago an attempt was made to restore them. requiring the signatures of 100% of the property owners. All signed except one-a Jewish person across the street, the same thing happened in other blocks, so the matter was dropped. Each time held up by Jewish residents. Now, this residential bungalow area is being disrupted by apt buildings on corner and inside lots at high rents, unfurnished. The houses are being sold and moved about 15 miles to a new residential district, now being developed. We are in the County Strip, with all city privileges except voting on City questions, which we do not want. We do vote on School questions. By building in the county strip only county taxes are paid, while in the city area, one has to pay both city and county taxes, and believe me, Los Angeles taxes are a BIG item. If California continues to grow, as it has for the past 30 years by 1970 this section will be all apartments.. Land values have risen. We do not know when or where our next move will be. One thing I do know, it will not be to the HOT San Fernando Valley. How others endure the heat I neither know or care. Well Time will tell, in the mean time we will try to kaap cool and not worry.

Aug. 5, Days are much cooler now, and I feel as tho I can accomplish something. As far as doing anything worthwhile, this summer has been a failure. Small wonder why I do not want to "go to hell". I am hoping conditions will improve next year to permit us to take another eastern trip. Hoping all is well with your family, and that the summer has been enjoyable

Sincerely

Marie E. Loring

We formerly had blue daisies but, like so many plants in this climate, they became rarer, so they were rooted out, same thing happened to the Oregon primroses. People in cold climates derive more enjoyment from the "old fashioned" flowers.

This will be a woman's postscript, and you know by this time what they are---I want to tell you that one of my most valued
Xmas gifts was a reproduction of a "Land Grant issued to Sophia Davy otherwise Huffnell" in 1799. The grant was for 200 acres. Gift from a Perry-Davy descendant.

Luella Lewis wrote me that Henry Finkle Jr. was in Bath last fall. I have not seen him since he was a small boy dressed in a dark blue sailor suit. His mother was a very fine woman. She and my mother were close friends

Last October on our way home from Santa Barbara, we stopped at Camarillo to see the Purdy's-Amos, 87, whose face is as smooth as a baloon, not a wrinkle in sight. Lewis, 90, who looks like a 60 year young when wearing a hat was recovering from an operation. These men, brothers, ~~le~~ left Bath in the spring of 1881 with the rest of the family except Edith-Mrs Ben Brisco- to start life again on a Minnesota prairie. I asked Lew WHY, his father with a grown family, a successful farmer and prepared for old age, left a comfortable living for a tar paper shanty on a prairie in the coldest state in the Union. Lew replied "That was the biggest mistake my parents ever made" but father was always on the lookout for new land." There are other states with plenty of fertile land and a milder climate.

Lew's second wife was Lola Allen, whose brother is now li-living in Bath. We like Lola very much and was glad she was home the Sunday we called.

Amos has a ^{things} hobby of making beautiful out of wood. He gave me a model of a Japanese temple, that reminded me of the present school bldg in Bath. A year ago I had sent Lew and Amos each a picture of the Bath School taken in 1881 after they had gone to the west. So before Xmas I wrote, suggesting Amos, in his spare time, make a model of that Bath school, large enough to hold a receptacle for coins dropped from a slit in the roof to receive contributions to the Bath Hist. Soc., and said there was no hurry, as the Soc. was not active at present.

In January a card was received from Lew stating the model was finished. Nothing slow about Amos.

The winter, so far, has been such a busy one for me, that I have not replied, or rather answered Lew's card which I must do next week.

There is little satisfaction in being a one sided corres-sponsent, so I hope to find a letter in the mail box from you, and Dorothy ~~this is~~ A good sized post script.
Didn't I tell you????

Dear Peter:

A recent letter from Mrs Gutzeit told of Judge Smith of Napanee and of his plan to reorganize the Historical Society there. and that he had secured a fine room in the new Memorial Bldg to house the re-arranged exhibits with the hope that more people will be moved to add to them to stimulate interest and develop something worthwhile to show your visitors from the U.S.A. and other parts of Canada and the outside world.

As the Bath Society has been dormant for many years and shows no sign of awakening in the near future, Mrs Gutzeit asked if I would be willing to loan the articles I have given the Bath Society, to the Napanee Society.

It sounds like a good idea and may be the means of awakening a desire in the Bathites to have an exhibit of their own.

If you have not already done so, I hope you will fall in line and give the Napanee Society your valuable help and ideas.

I am in favor of loaning my small exhibit^t and will add to it and ask other U.E.L. descendants to do likewise. "In union there is strength."

in 10,000
It is not an exaggeration to say that not more than ONE person in the U.S. KNOWS THE MEANING of U.E.L, the Loyalists who fought on the British side in the Revolutionary War, and who were refugees to Canada. Many do know of the Loyalists who went to Nova Scotia in 1760, and who claim they are THE REAL LOYALISTS-they stick up their noses at the U.E.L's who endured the hardships of pioneer life.

May I suggest that you write a forceful article on the U.E.L's printed on a BIG card in BIG letters, the card at least 30x40 inches, to attract the attention of every one who enters the Historical Society Room. I have met many Canadians who ~~were and~~ are descended from U.E.L's, who do not know what the title means.

YOU are the person-to write that card, If Judge Smith has not already suggested the idea, don't be afraid to suggest it to him.

NOW ALL PULL TOGETHER.

Good Luck to you ALL

BENJAMIN VAL PERRY

GANANOQUE, Nov. 2—The funeral of Benjamin Val Perry, resident of the Marble Rock district, who died at his home there Sunday after a prolonged illness, was held yesterday from the residence to Marble Rock Cemetery. Wed Nov 2 1938

The service, conducted by Rev. Clarence Cross of Lansdowne, was very largely attended by friends and neighbors of the deceased. The bearers were six nephews of Mr. Perry, Martin Perry, Arleton Perry, Oliver Perry, Roy Perry, Leonard Perry and Walter Perry. Interment was made at Marble Rock cemetery, right next to the Perry farm.

Surviving are his wife and two daughters, Hazel at home and Mrs. Leonard Shane. Mrs. Luella Perry, Mrs. Walter Emery, Mrs. Agnes Dickson and Mrs. Norman Kelsey are sisters-in-law. A number of nieces also survive.

eration to establishment in Canada of means by which, in most articles of heavy equipment, the country could be made independent of external sources of supply. To this end reports have been collated setting forth the character and capacity of nearly 800 industrial plants. Against this, however, the Government is faced with a growing sentiment throughout the country that the nation's defence needs should be supplied from plants that are Government-owned, and from which the profit-motive has been eliminated.

It is anticipated national defence problems will loom large at the next session of Parliament and the issue of private or public manufacture of arms will be fully debated. The parliamentary votes of the last two years, each in the neighborhood of $35,000,000, were largely applied to the acquisition of airplanes and the construction of coastal defences.

Deaths - Funerals

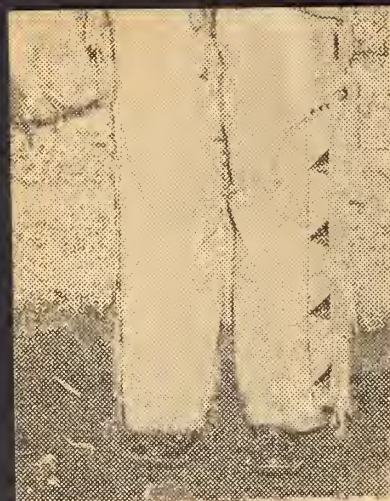

GEORGE H. PERRY

NAPANEE, — A former resident of Napanee, George H. Perry passed away in the Western Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday night and following a brief service in Toronto on Tuesday afternoon, the remains will be brought to Riverside Cemetery, Napanee on Wednesday for interment in the family plot. Aug 2 193

Mr. and Mrs. Perry moved to Toronto a few years ago and the day before Christmas the former suffered a very severe stroke and was in the hospital for some time. He returned to his home in the city but was forced to again return to the hospital. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Perry he was a native of Napanee where he received his education.

Many years of his life were spent on boats which plied the Great Lakes, and generally after a busy season he returned to Napanee to spend the winter. Of recent years he had been unable to follow marine business. He loved to travel and he visited practically every state in the Union as well as many parts of Canada and in the far north. He also had the pleasure of visiting England many years ago. Very congenial he was exceptionally well liked and his many friends here will regret to learn of his death.

For a long period of years he was a member of Union Lodge No. 9 A.F. & A.M. and during the winters spent in his old home town was a regular attendant at the lodge sessions. Mrs. Perry, who survives, was, before her marriage, Miss Dolly Hawley. He leaves one son, James Perry of the Royal Bank staff, Toronto, and a daughter, Miss Mildred Perry in Toronto.

about three years. He was able to walk about the place until he was about 9 years old. It is said that he was struck while walking in the garden soon after he got up. His son found the body upon his return to the home for dinner.

Mr. Perry was a lifelong resident of this section. He was born in a log house on the Limerick-Chaumont road in the town of Lyme April 1, 1848, son of Joseph H. and Susannah Smith Perry. When he was 17 the family moved to Henderson, where Mr. Perry became a millwright.

While living at Henderson he married Miss Abigail Ann Rice on Aug. 30, 1868. For five years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Perry lived on a farm at Henderson, moving then to Dexter where Mr. Perry became associated with his father in a feed mill. For ten years he remained with his father in business. Later he conducted a bicycle and repair shop for several years.

On Sept. 1, 1898, Mr. and Mrs. Perry moved to Adams, where Mr. Perry became associated with his nephew, William S. Rice in the W. S. Rice company. Mr. Perry was in charge of the manufacturing department until his retirement ten years ago. His wife died here Jan. 19, 1933.

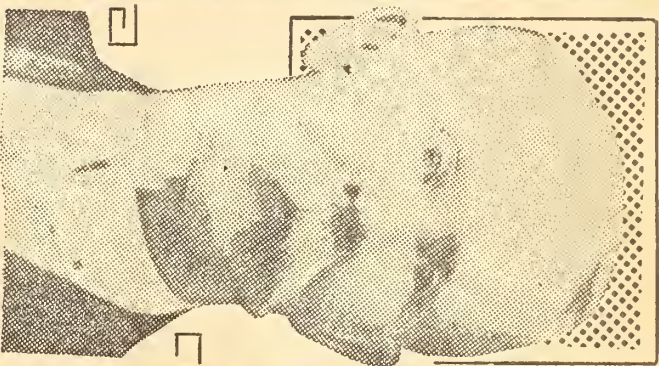

Mr. Perry was a charter member of the Dexter Odd Fellows lodge formed in 1896, and he assisted in organizing the Adams lodge after he moved here. He was a noble grand of the lodge and five years ago received a life membership. He also was a member of the Oriental Encampment of the Odd Fellows order and a member of the Masonic lodge and chapter here.

Surviving are his son, Walter, and three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from the Piddock funeral home at 2 p. m. (E.S.T.) Wednesday, with Rev. Bert Fairchild, pastor emeritus of the Dexter Universalist church, officiating.

Interment will be in the Smithville cemetery. The bearers will be Frank Hunt, Roy Wood, Leon Washburn, J. Wesley Hughes, Walter Mullin and Frederick A. Stell, all of Adams.

RMC Graduate Active at 88—Maj.-Gen. A. Bowen Perry, 88, ex-commissioner of the RCMP in the days when it was the Northwest Mounted Police, remembers well his graduation from Royal Military College, Kingston, in 1876. The general lives in Ottawa with his daughter and son-in-law.

Member of First Class Attends RMC Opening

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—When Minister of National Defense Claxton officially opens the Tri-Service Royal Military College at Kingston on Sept. 20, the oldest ex-RMC cadet present at the ceremony will undoubtedly be Maj.-Gen. A. Bowen Perry, CMG.

The 88-year-old general is the only surviving member of the original class of 18 who attended RMC in 1876, when the college first opened. He graduated four years later, winner of the Governor-General's Gold and Silver Medals as the most proficient cadet of his class.

Gen. Perry was born in Ontario on Aug. 21, 1860.

After graduation from RMC he was appointed lieutenant in the Royal Engineers and served in England, retiring the following years to accept a position on the staff of the Geological Survey of Canada. In 1882 he was appointed to the Northwest Mounted Police and was promoted to superintendent in 1886 for his services in the Northwest Rebellion. In the ensuing years Gen. Perry held many important posts with the Mounties, being in command of detachments in Macleod, Calgary, Prince Albert, Regina, and in British Columbia.

In 1897 he commanded a detachment sent to England for Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee celebration, and in 1911 was in command of a contingent of Mounties, sent to England to represent the force for the coronation of King George V.

In 1899, during the Klondike days, he took over command of the Yukon from Superintendent Sam Steel of Yukon fame. In 1900 Gen. Perry was appointed commissioner of the force, and retained that position until he retired in April, 1922, with the rank of major-general.

Gen. Perry resides with his son-in-law and daughter, Col. (retired) and Mrs. G. L. Jennings, 26 Albert St., Ottawa. Col. Jennings also served with the RCMP, retiring as assistant commissioner. Another son, Brig. Kenneth Perry, served on the staff of RMC.

Proprietor Routs Would-Be Thieves

Bleeding from four cuts on his head, Jacob Weinberg, 43, owner of a cigar store at 562 College St., routed two thugs who attempted to rob him early Saturday.

Weinberg told Det. David Pringle the two men—one of them tall, red-headed with a freckled face, the other shorter, with black hair—had been in the store to buy cigarets each morning for a week. On Saturday they came in and asked to see some "get well" cards to send to a friend in Western Hospital.

As Weinberg walked to the back of the store to get the cards, he was struck on the head. The storekeeper attempted to fight back and was struck a second time. He yelled for assistance and the two men fled the store.

As the thugs fled, they left behind on the floor a length of iron pipe, bound at each end with tape. The pipe was taken to headquarters for fingerprint examination.

The two men ran east on College St. and north on Manning Ave., then were lost in a network of lanes. Weinberg was admitted to Western Hospital.

Mrs. S. A. Templeton Died On Sunday After Lengthy Illness

Mrs. Sarah Adeline Templeton, widow of William Templeton, founder of The Napanee Beaver, died on Sunday February 4th, after being in failing health for the past two years.

Since the death of her husband in 1908, Mrs. Templeton had retained ownership of The Napanee Beaver, which for some years was managed by her son, the late William A. Templeton, and following his death, by her grandson, William Templeton, who was killed in World War II.

She was born in Napanee and was the elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benjamin Perry, well-known residents of the town many years ago. Her long life was spent entirely in Napanee and outside of her home and family, her chief interest for many years was centred in St. Andrew's Church, which she supported in every possible way until it was disbanded a few years ago. Since then she had been a member of Trinity United Church.

Mrs. Templeton is survived by three daughters, Winnifred, Mrs. J. F. VanEvery of Toronto, Margaret, Mrs. J. M. McIntosh of Toronto, and Janet, Mrs. G. H. Carlisle of Napanee. She was predeceased some years ago by her two sons, Dr. Charles Templeton of Brandon, Manitoba, and William A. Templeton of Napanee. Her only sister, Mrs. M. C. Bogart, died several years ago.

Her funeral was conducted at her late home, Thomas Street, on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Noble Hatton, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Wilson, of Toronto, and interment will be at Riverside Cemetery, in the family plot.

The pall-bearers were A. B. Root, C. L. Graham, D. A. Miller, J. S. Black, Gerald B. Kimmett, and H. E. Follis, members of the staff of The Napanee Beaver.

Dear Peter:

Long time, no hear from Peter. Methinks the spirits that are supposed to boost the Quakers into saying something, have really tried to get you going without success, have reluctantly gone into hiding (hope it is temporary).

Mrs Miller wrote me a year ago that the Bath Hist. Soc. was being revived and I rather expected a letter from you reminding me that it was time to renew my dues. . My receipt for a 10 year term has been mislaid, but I think ^{time} the term has expired .

Plans-good plans that are not impossible if the Bath people will start with the idea they will succeed, and go ahead with confidence that will inspire confidence in others . The plans that are buzzing around in my bonnet include the whole county, with Bath as the center. I wrote some to Mrs Miller, since then I have improved on them, but will not include them in this letter, because they may not be acceptable as being ~~impossible~~ of accomplishment in Bath. Bath is not to blame-Bath is waiting for the villagers to wake up and do something worth while, as New England has been doing in recent years. There are just as intelligent people in Bath as in other places, but they have allowed themselves to get in a rut, which means narrowmindedness, smugishness, criticism of a person who wants to do something to improve conditions. Fifteen years ago I said "the whole village ought to go on a trip to see what is being done in the U.S." and I still think so. Interest in Historical Societies and Museums is gradually increasing, slowly but surely, and more interest in genealogy.

If you receive the Gen. Exchange from Toronto, you have read the account of the Finkle Family in the July Number. I remember Roland and Henry who were quite temperamental. When I was in Santa Barbara about 8 or 9 years ago , my daughter ^{Louise} returned one evening from a call on a friend who had a guest, Miss Lillian While, who I think was born in Bath, anyway she was a niece of Mrs Carter, who lived in the house next to the school and a grand daughter of Dr Ashton. She gave Louise a list of names of former Bathites and to ask me if I had known them. First on the list were Charlie and Roddie Carter. Roddie was my mother's first beau, and he wanted to marry her. Next was Roland Finkle, Yes I knew him. "What do you remember about him?" "He swore like a trooper!" How she laughed and said "that is what Miss White said". I recalled all the others on the list. There were laughs at the other end of the line when Louise relayed my remarks. I met Miss White the next day for a pleasant chat. Her age is about 80-plus- and she lives in Oakland, California.

Henry Finkle was one of the early settlers of Moorhead, Minnesota. One night at a Colonial party I wore a brown silk dress of my mother's -a dress she had worn in the early 1860's. Henry Finkle was there, and when he saw me, he ~~said~~ ^{of} he was reminded the night he called to take mother to a dancing party. He liked bright colors and had asked her to wear her pretty pink wool de laine dress. When he saw her in the brown silk, he was awfully disappointed and asked her why she was wearing that ugly thing when she had a prettier dress. Mother tossed her head and said-"Because I prefer to wear this one". Mother COULD BE CONTRARY; had Henry asked her to wear the brown, she would have been contrary enough to ^{have worn} ~~wear~~ the pink.

You are aware that several 1,000 Loyalists emigrated to the West Indies after the Rev. War, which has caused me to wonder if that is one of the reasons many names are missing from records. Many others returned to England or went to the So. Atlantic states or joined the trek over the Cumberland mountains to other southern states, of course there were exoduses to the south before the Rev. Others went to Ohio and Indiana, the greatest number going to Canada. There was much changing about after the Civil War, and it might be possible that -----Norton went to the West Indies or to Mexico or South or Central America.

PERRY.—

Died at Enresttown, the 12th of January instant, Jemima Perry, wife of Robert Perry, Senr., and sister of the late Ebenezer Washburn, Esq., of Hallowell in the 76th year of her age. Her remains were interred on the 14th, with every mark of real but unostentatious grief and respect.

"In the beginning of last November, she was seized with a distressing asthmatic affection, which finally terminated her life, and which she endured with Christian patience and resignation to the will of heaven.

"Mrs. Perry was born in the Province of Massachusetts, and came with her husband and family into this Province among its first settlers.

"She has left an aged partner, with whom she lived in conjugal union and affection fifty-eight years: seven children; a numerous train of grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her loss is extensively felt. In the various relations of life, as a wife, a mother, a sister, a neighbour, and a member of civil and Christian society, her exemplary conduct entitled her to the esteem of all who knew her."

Dear Dr B:

Monday afternoon

When I asked for Robert Perry's data, I had no idea there would be 4 typed. pages. Some time required to do all that - and I certainly appreciate it -

If you plan to include such information in your book, it will be a very valuable reference and I hope after this war-torn time is over, you will have an opportunity to complete the work.

If you would like to have me look up some Norton information while I am in Chicago - send the notes by one of the children before 3 o'clock to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon - as I plan to leave on the 4 o'clock bus for Naperville - where I will be at the Paisley Hotel until Friday - Yesterday

Kerb Lewis & his wife drove me out to Lot 1, Cor. 2 on the north side of the Hawley Road to see the former J^m Rogers U. E. L. homestead on land purchased from Jephtha Hawley.

We drove out to the Hawley Rd. then ~~North~~^{west} 2 miles. The Hawley School is farther and the house is east of the school - Ray Freeman has a Kodak picture of the house, but he hopes to get a better one, as he is not satisfied with the one he has.

I'm sorry I forgot to take a Kodak picture of Cynthia. The next time I come we surely will have more than one picture.

"Here in these halls the petty distractions of the earthly pilgrimage may be laid aside and their place taken by the inspiration and serenity that come from communion with the Poet, the Prophet, the Philosopher, the Artist, the Scientist, indeed with all those who themselves have caught a glimpse of the things that are not transitory in their natures but have eternal values."

FROM HIS ADDRESS
AT THE DEDICATION OF THIS BUILDING

Miss Perry at 100 ^{Globe and Mail} Looks to the Future ³⁻²⁹⁻³⁸

With sparkling eyes, Miss Annie Marja Perry, 100 years old yesterday, stooped over a basket fragrant with 100 crimson roses and said: "Thank you" in the sign language of the deaf and dumb.

Around her crowded women of seventy, eighty and ninety years—her friends of the Julia Greenshields' Home—showering her with congratulations. One hundred pink candles burned brightly on the two-tier birthday cake, and Miss Perry deftly cut the first slice. There was laughter among the guests when Miss Perry nibbling her own piece of the cake discovered a five-cent piece.

She was very happy on this her hundredth birthday, Miss Perry told The Globe and Mail. Her pastor, Rev. Alexander MacGowan, minister of the Evangelical Church of the Deaf, Wellesley Street, acted as interpreter. Mrs. Grey Hamilton, President, and members of the Board of Directors of the Julia H. Greenshields' Home, the staff and friends from out-of-town shared her happiness.

Visiting with her cousins, Mrs. M. E. Bliss, past 82, and Miss G. M. Perry, from Peterborough, Miss Perry chatted, in sign language, of the Perry family, pioneer settlers of Cobourg. She remembered her grandfathers—Hon. Ebenezer Perry, M.P., and John Macdonald of Garth, and her father, George Perry, Customs Officer of Cobourg.

Warmly she greeted old friends who came all the way from Cobourg, her birthplace, to wish her many happy returns. Flowers and gifts filled her room at the Julia Greenshields' Home, which has been her residence for the past seventeen years.

There is much to enjoy in life even when you reach the century mark, Miss Perry declared. With her slate and pad of paper and pencil, she is able to converse freely with folk who do not know the sign language. Once a month at least she attends a Sunday service in the Evangelical Church for the Deaf. Frequently she journeys downtown on a shopping expedition.

There are motor drives and books and the comradeship of the people in the Julia Greenshields' Home to enjoy. Miss Perry received her education in New York and from private governesses, and for five years she taught in the Belleville School. She is looking forward to other birthday parties.

Winnipeg, March 28 (CP).—No. 1 Northern Manitoba wheat soared nearly to the $1.43 mark on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, highest level since March 2. Export demand found few willing sellers in cash wheat and also characterized futures dealings. Winnipeg futures moved a maximum of nearly 4c higher after opening fractionally lower but profit taking pared gains. Closing quotations were 2½c-2¾c above those of Saturday. Canadian export sales were estimated at 200,000 bushels chiefly to the United Kingdom and made up of old crop No. 3 Northern supplies at Vancouver. Other world wheat markets gave a dismal display. Chicago, influenced by higher Winnipeg prices, closed unchanged to ½c higher. Liverpool closed unchanged to ¼d lower and Buenos Aires moved ¾c-1c higher at noon. World wheat shipments last week totalled 9,167,000 bushels compared with 11,641,000 bushels the previous week. Canadian clearances were 1,232,000 bushels. Keen demand for top grades of red springs resulted in No. 1 Northern improving 2c and No. 2 1c at 22c and 19c premium over the May future. No. 3 Northern narrowed to a discount of only 3c compared with the May option. Nearly 4c a bushel jump of Winnipeg quotations for wheat futures had much to do with making Chicago wheat prices average higher. Export purchases of North American wheat today as distinguished from futures were estimated as totalling only 300,000 bushels. At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to ½c higher. A decrease of 2,771,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply total was simultaneous with today's late upturn of Chicago wheat. On the other hand, open future contracts in wheat here were posted as aggregating about 25,000,000 bushels less than on the corresponding date last year. Some observers contended that this circumstance was partly responsible for the Early Settlers of Cobourg

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star, Thursday,
July 2nd, 1925 :—

Last week we were handed the following reference to the late Ebenezer Perry, one of the first settlers in Cobourg and the man who probably built the first building in Cobourg, on the site where the Hydro Electric store now is. When Cobourg was first formed into a police village in 1837 Mr. Perry was chosen as the first president of the board of police. The notice of his death is contained in an issue of the Cobourg Star in May, 1876, and part of the notice, in reference to his life, is reproduced below :—

(Extract from The Cobourg Star, 1876 : proprietor Major Floyd)

The family to which Mr. Perry belonged was and is one of the best known in Canada. His parents and other relatives were United Empire Loyalists, who, like a great many others, postponed their self-interest to their loyalty during the Revolutionary War, and at its close were forced to seek refuge in the wilds and forests of Canada. The Perry family settled near the site of the present town of Bath in the County of Addington, where the late Senator was born about 1788. The younger members migrated westward and located themselves at different points; one brother settled at Whitby, which took its former name of Perry's Corners from him; the other, with whom we have more particularly to do just now, took up his abode in the Newcastle district and became one of the founders of the town of Cobourg. Mr. Perry's settlement there took place more than half a century ago, and as one of its earliest and most active inhabitants he was from the first to last closely identified with its growth and the development of the district. He commenced life as a merchant and was the possessor for many years of a very extensive business which embraced milling and traffic in grain and other produce as well as storekeeping. He was one of the Commissioners of the Cobourg Harbor Trust from the inception of that Corporation and after the death of the Hon. Asa Burnham he became chairman, an office which he continued to fill till his death. In early life Mr. Perry was a Liberal in politics and adhered to the Reform Party throughout the stormy period which preceded the rebellion of 1837. He was a supporter of the Hincks Administration and when, after the defeat of the government, a coalition was formed between its members and the leaders of the Conservative Opposition, Mr. Perry continued to support the new regime. From that time forward he remained a member of the party led by Mr. John A. Macdonald to whom, after the disappearance of Mr. Hincks from Canadian public life, he transferred his political allegiance. His services to the party were rewarded in 1855 by a nomination to the Legislative Council of the old Province of Canada, of which he remained a life member till Confederation.

He left several sons, one of whom is Collector of Customs at Cobourg, while another represented West Peterboro in the House of Commons during the first Parliament of the Dominion. It falls to our lot this week to chronicle the death of one, the history of whose life is to a very large extent the history of the town of Cobourg. If we were to sketch fully the life of the Hon. Ebenezer Perry, we would be giving in detail the principal portion of our town not merely since it was called a town but when it was a growing village and still further and more remotely of the period when a few struggling cottages emerged from the wilderness where our town now stands, and when the voice of the savage Indian warrior was more frequently heard than the more agreeable sounds which indicated the approach of Christian civilization. And not only would we be thus chronicling the gradual growth and municipal history of our town but we would also, in order to give an adequate sketch of his life, be obliged to enter largely into the earlier and later political struggles of our country with which he has been identified and in all of which he has taken an active part.

The Hon. Ebenezer Perry was born at Ernestown, Ontario, on the 29th of September, 1788. He was the son of Robert Perry, a U.E. Loyalist from the State of Vermont, who like the rest of that noble band of truly loyal men preferred exile to breaking their bonds of fealty to the King of England. Mr. Robert Perry escaped from Vermont, A.D. 1777, while the Revolutionary War was still in progress. It was while the present century was yet very young, and the deceased also in the bloom of youth, that Mr. Perry settled in what is now the town of Cobourg but then a mere hamlet. He was engaged chiefly in mercantile affairs. The large mills in the rear of the town which yet bear his name are a memorial of his enterprise and industry. He was long the foremost commercial man in this section of the country and many farmers in Emily, Cavan, Otonabee and other places are yet living who recollect selling grain continually to him and purchasing goods at his store year after year more than half a century ago. The late Mr. Perry gave the land for a school of learning on which the first Collegiate was built and which should never have been used for anything but a school, but which was sold some time after his death by some unknown persons. (The property is where Mrs. Janney built two houses). He was early called, however, to fill various public stations; was sheriff of the united counties of Northumberland and Durham for a number of years; was the first president of the board of police for the town of Cobourg before the time when mayors were elected. When the board of commissioners of the town trust was first instituted he was appointed a member and filled that post for seventeen years, having been at the time of his death and for many years previous chairman of the board. In the year 1855 he was appointed a life member of the Legislative Council of Canada and held that dignified and honorable position up to the time of Confederation. On February 2nd in the year 1871 he was called to the Senate and was in the discharge of his legislative duties up to the time, a few weeks since, when he was seized with the illness which occasioned his death. He was removed from Ottawa to his home in Cobourg in a private car a few days previous to his decease and it was quite evident from his sinking state that his hours were numbered, and he expired peacefully on the afternoon of Monday last, the first day of the present month, when he was a few months short of being 88 years of age. The funeral took place on Wednesday last, the 3rd instant, and was very largely attended.

The Hon. Ebenezer Perry, a Senator of the Dominion of Canada, died at Cobourg the first day of May, 1876, aged 87 years, 7 months and 2 days, and was buried at St. Peter's cemetery, Cobourg, May 3rd, 1876.

Vrooman Family 21 Jan 1979

Dear Dr. Burleigh.

Enjoyed your information question & answer period on Saturday at the Genealogical Meeting.

I would appreciate your sending me the following booklets for which I enclose my cheque for $6.00 dollars.

✓ "The Shoreys The Perrys and the Walkers"

✓ "Vrooman Family Pioneers on the Bay of Quinte."

I am hoping your booklet will throw some light on the parentage of Jeremiah Perry, shown in Meacham's Atlas North Fredericksburgh Lot 3 Con's settlement date 1822.
which I interpret as his date of birth.

Prior to this he lived in Camden
East as his son Aylesworth Bowen Perry was born there (according to an obit) in 1853

Mr. Ray Perry presently residing in Lennox, Addington County Home for the aged has told me that "Peter Perry settled in Camden" - but could not say certainly whether this was the father of Jeremiah (his grandfather).

Like other families of those days the Perry's were many and it requires a lot of searching to unravel them!

Thank you and good health
in the year ahead!

Sincerely,

Grace Street.

P.S.

Do you remember Lura Perry who worked at D.V.A. when you were there in Penzance? This is her family we are tracing.

Dr. H. C. Burleigh

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I recently received my bank statement and was very happy to see that the check I sent you had reached you and been cleared at the bank. I was afraid that it might not be negotiable in Canada.

I have been hoping to hear from you in regards to my genealogy but realize that you must be a busy man. I am hoping that you will be able to send me some more information on the Lucas and Perry lines. I want to make your job as easy as possible so I thought I would send a sheet along with this letter. Maybe it will be easier for you to fill it out for me than if you were to type much data that I might not need. If this wouldn't help, just disregard the sheet and send me the data the easiest possible way.

I am sending a family group sheet for the parents of Sarah Perry (the wife of Valentine Lucas). I will appreciate any data that will more completely fill this group out.

Please notify me as to the charge and I will pay by return mail.

I am also interested in the grandparents of Sarah Perry as far as you might have them.

I appreciate your time and effort in this endeavor and anxiously await your answer.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. M. L. Roberts

1837 Rebellion Arrest

Old-time Records — Shos W. Casey 1899

Ebenezer Perry's Arrest

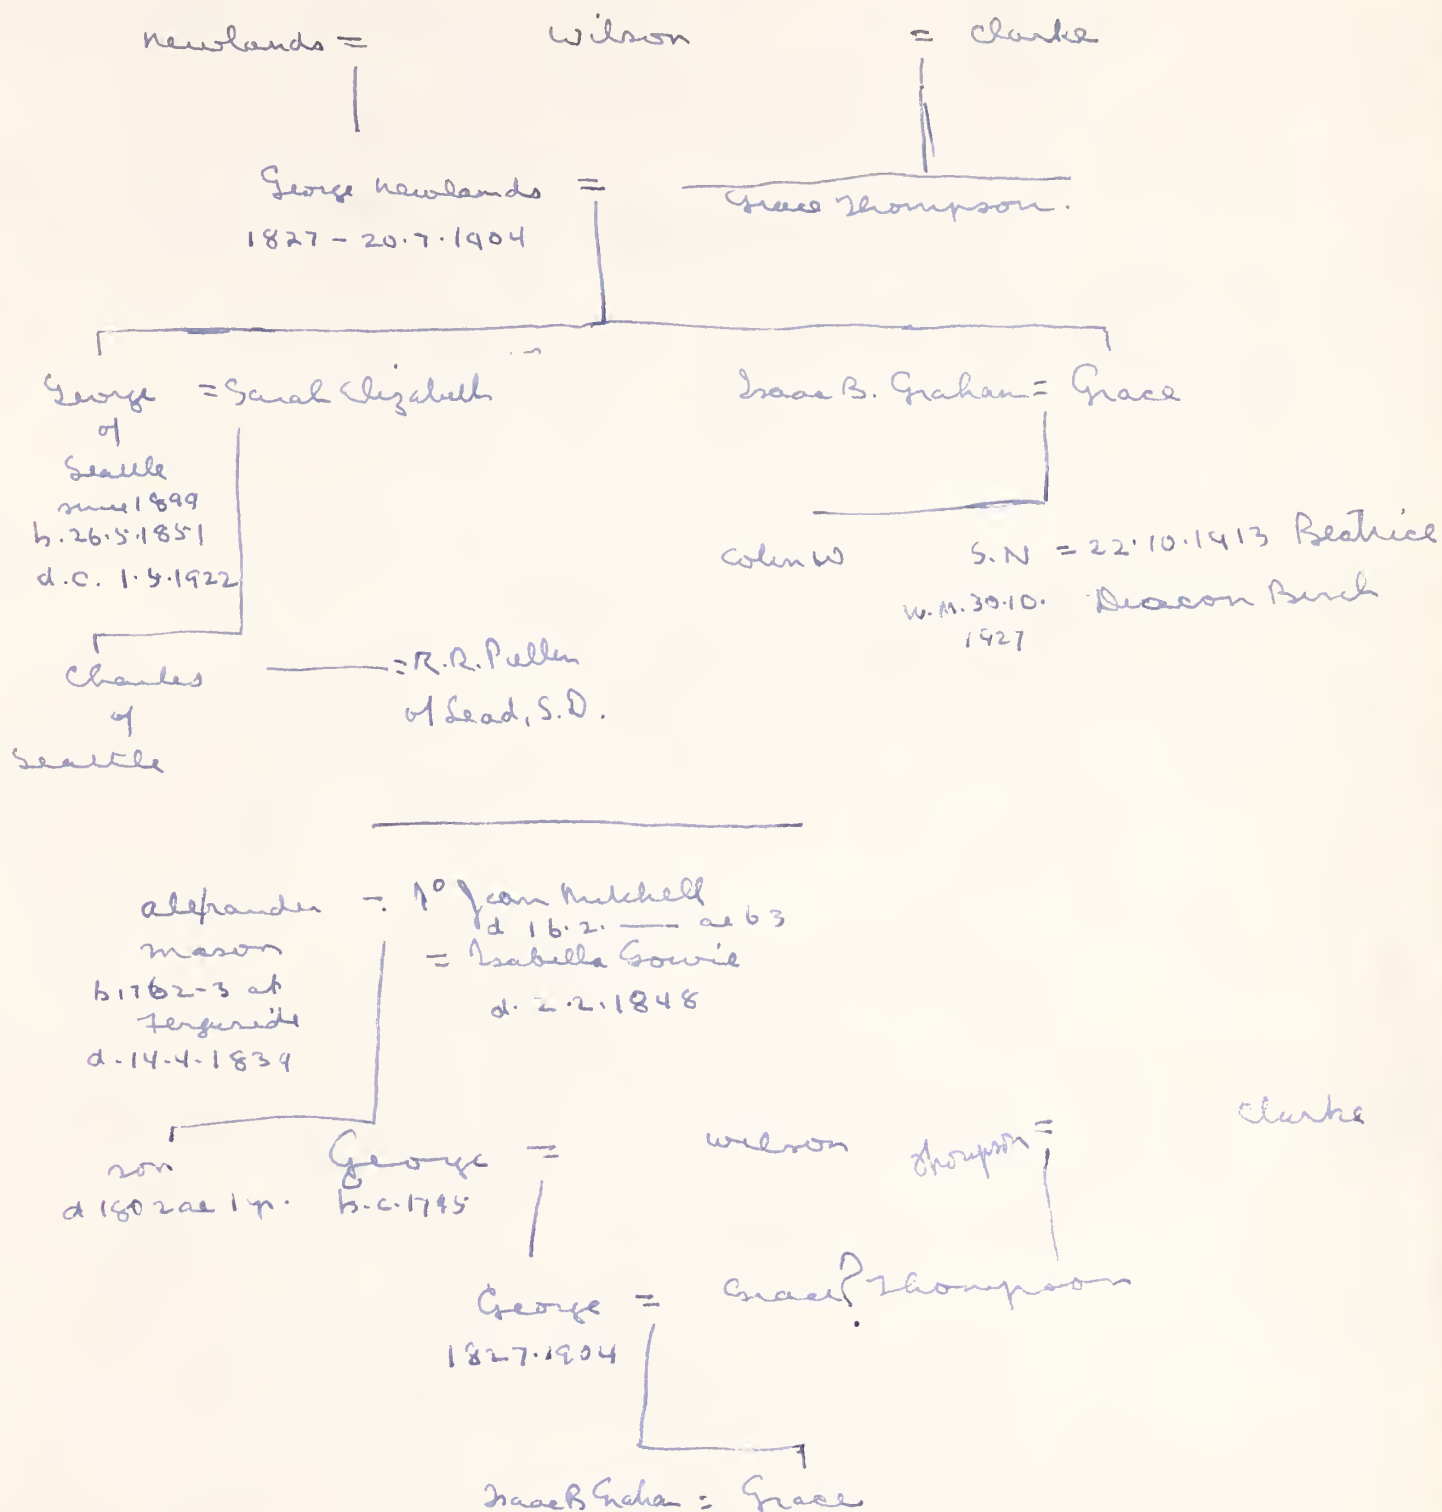

Among the prominent and prosperous business men of Enniscorthy up to 1837 was Ebenezer Perry, who kept a store and carried on a pottery just opposite what is yet known as Thomas' Corners, on the Kingston road. Mr Perry was a nephew of Peter Perry, M.P.P., already referred to. He belonged to a leading family who took a prominent interest in political affairs. He was a man of more than ordinary education for those times, and of intelligence and an active mind. He was a fluent talker and a steady stump-speaker and exerted a good deal of influence in his locality. When arrests began to be made by the wholesale of the leading spirits it was resolved to arrest him, too, seize and search his papers and have him taken to Kingston to prison.

It happened one winter evening just then that the late John Aylsworth, of Newburgh, who then lived on a farm just east of Mr. Perry, casually heard through a friend that a meeting of the Tory Squires had been held in Bath and it was arranged that Ebenezer Perry and Nathan Tello^x should be arrested that night as disloyal persons. It was mid-night, or later, when this information was received, but within an hour or so Mr. Perry got a friendly hint of it. He was abed and asleep at the time, but at once aroused himself up, and he and his wife at once searched out and destroyed all correspondence and other papers they found that might be even construed into anything like giving trouble. He dressed himself hurriedly and at once made his way to his brother's, the late William Perry, a large farmer at Violet, a mile or two distant, where he was comfortably concealed in a quantity of hay over a horse stable, where he could be fed and cared for until it was deemed safe to get him safely away.

After he had gone Mrs. Perry made another search among some
